

Finance - Concept

Finance is the study of raising, managing and planning funds, and management of related risks.

Becoming a finance specialist requires broad education:

1. Methods of general analysis and business administration courses (first three years of study);
2. Finance courses.

The courses that we offer cover different areas of finance and, overall, they aim to form highly qualified finance specialists, who are ready to take challenges in any organization.